THE LIVING WORD TRANSFORMING LIVES

Gift Guide 2025

A gift brings such joy, to both the giver and the receiver.

When you choose a gift from this Gift Guide, you're doing something extraordinary — you're helping to bring the hope of Jesus Christ to people around the world. Whether it's through Bibles or the programs they're placed in, your gift becomes part of God's life-changing work in individuals, families, and entire communities.

Each gift, given in love — whether on your own behalf or in honour of someone dear — becomes a powerful expression of the Gospel. Those who receive it are not only encouraged by God's Word but often go on to share it with others. It's a gift that keeps giving!

What a beautiful way to celebrate the birth of our Saviour — by helping others encounter His love throughout the year.

May your heart be filled with the lasting joy and peace that only He can give.

"Thanks be to God for his indescribable gift!"
2 Corinthians 9:15 NIV

Pastor Ramin's Story

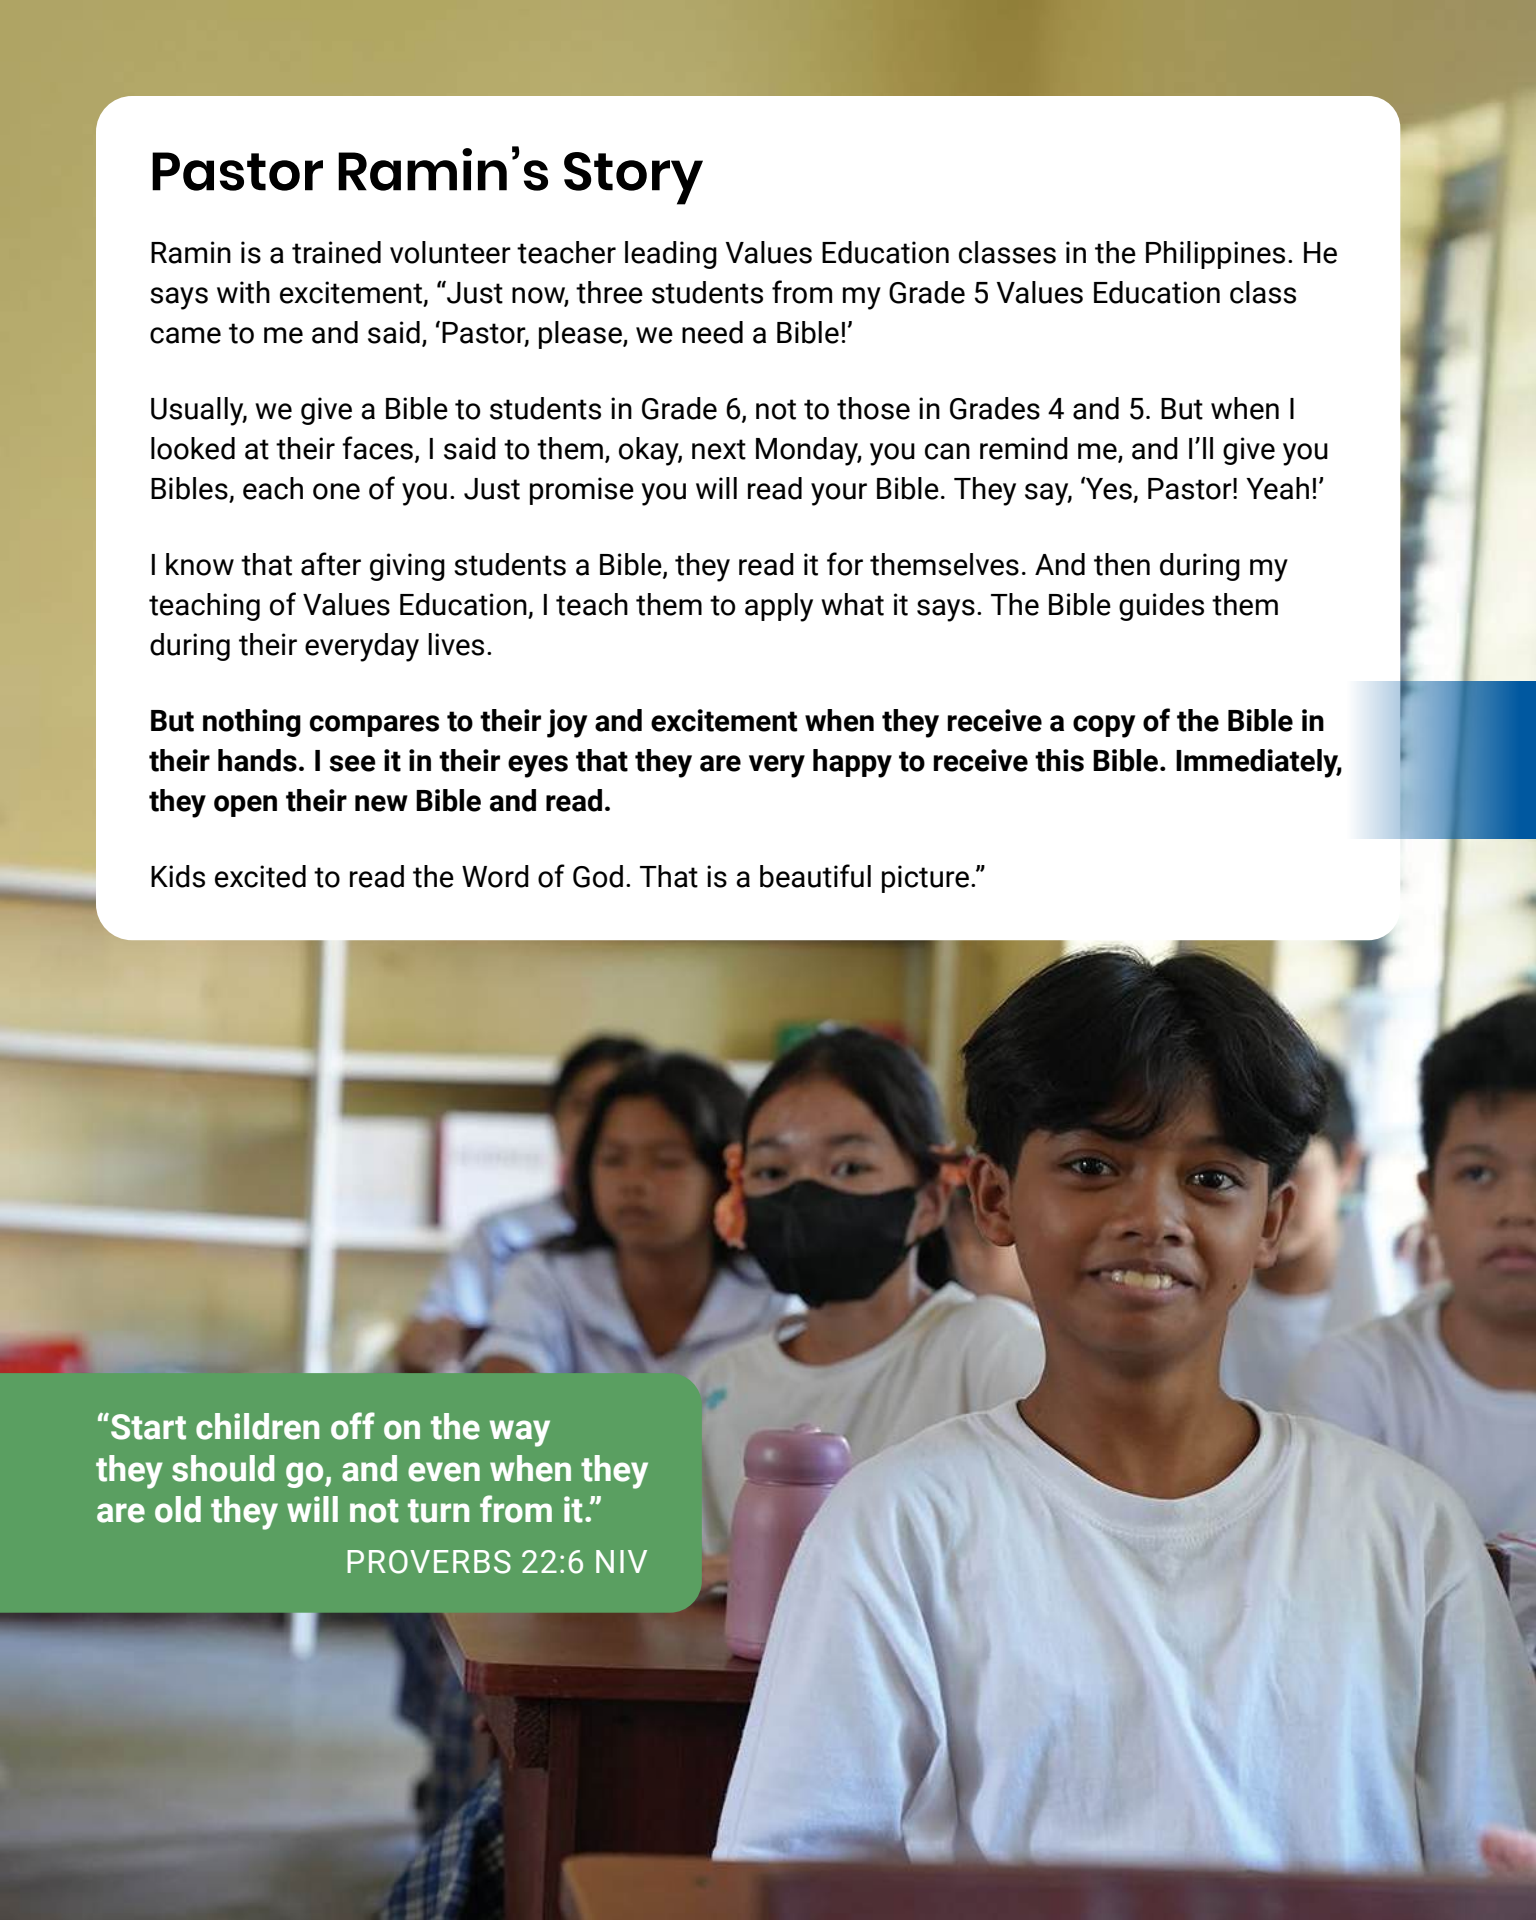
Ramin is a trained volunteer teacher leading Values Education classes in the Philippines. He says with excitement, "Just now, three students from my Grade 5 Values Education class came to me and said, 'Pastor, please, we need a Bible!'

Usually, we give a Bible to students in Grade 6, not to those in Grades 4 and 5. But when I looked at their faces, I said to them, okay, next Monday, you can remind me, and I'll give you Bibles, each one of you. Just promise you will read your Bible. They say, 'Yes, Pastor! Yeah!'

I know that after giving students a Bible, they read it for themselves. And then during my teaching of Values Education, I teach them to apply what it says. The Bible guides them during their everyday lives.

But nothing compares to their joy and excitement when they receive a copy of the Bible in their hands. I see it in their eyes that they are very happy to receive this Bible. Immediately, they open their new Bible and read.

Kids excited to read the Word of God. That is a beautiful picture."



"Start children off on the way they should go, and even when they are old they will not turn from it."

PROVERBS 22:6 NIV

Jesus in the Classroom

In the Philippines, Christian volunteer teachers provide the National Values Education Program right in the public-school classrooms. Principals and parents notice the difference in their students – and are eager for these trained teachers to be in their school. The Living Word of God is transforming young lives – and churches are bursting with new families as a result! Your gift provides a child with a Bible and a trained volunteer teacher.

Isko's Story

During a meeting of believers in Serbia, Samir noticed a man standing just outside the entrance to the room. As the worship songs continued, the man stayed. During the preaching of God's Word, the man stayed. Samir could tell that the man was paying close attention to what was happening. During the prayers, the man stayed. After the closing blessing, Samir could hardly wait to go outside and talk with him.

"He said his name is Isko. He invited me to come to his home the following day. I gladly accepted," Samir said.

When Samir arrived, Isko welcomed him to his home. For the next few hours, Isko asked Samir many questions. He wanted to know more about God. Samir gave Isko a Bible, and together they explored answers to his questions from the truth of God's Word.

"As I shared more with him, I asked if he wanted to pray with me," Samir says. "Isko already knew that he needed the Lord in his life. We prayed his first prayer together. That day, he knew that Jesus was his Lord and Saviour. Praise be to our Lord who touches and changes hearts in so many different ways!"

"Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you."

MATTHEW 7:7 NIV

Leonel's Story

Leonel serves in cross-cultural missions in the municipality of Turbo, Colombia. He has dedicated 25 years to the challenging task of starting new churches among ethnic groups in Colombia.

He emphasizes the necessity of understanding the unique circumstances of indigenous communities, as they often face challenges with the national and local governments, as well as armed conflicts and limited access to basic services.

Leonel and his team focus on the ethnic groups, delving into social, political, cultural, and economic aspects to establish connections and seek God's direction. Recognizing the need for an individual approach, he strives to have processes that are easy to understand and reproducible for each local community. Biblical training materials that are easily contextualized are key.

Training local champions, people who live and work in these communities, to become leaders is vital. Leonel stresses the importance of equipping these workers with the tools necessary for effective communication, including resources that convey the biblical narrative.

There are between 105 and 110 ethnic groups in Colombia, and Leonel's team currently reaches 15 of them. Leonel emphasizes the richness of cultural diversity in the country and the need for an approach tailored to each community.

Leonel has story after story of individuals within indigenous communities, renouncing sorcery and embracing Christianity. The focus is not merely on immediate conversions but on equipping these new believers with Bibles and empowering them to become leaders who disciple others.

"You are the light of the world. A town built on a hill cannot be hidden."

MATTHEW 5:14 NIV

Belonging

Everyone needs a place to belong. And church is a great place to build community. Inviting people in, talking to them about their lives, helping them study the Bible, and sharing experiences about having Jesus in your life – that's what being a church is all about. It might be in someone's home, under a tree, or around the village well, but starting a church builds community. Your gift trains and equips leaders to start a new church.

PERSECUTED CHURCH

Words of Hope

The Bible is filled with God's words of strength, comfort, and hope. Persecuted believers living in countries where it is dangerous to be a Christian rely on God's Word to sustain them during their darkest moments.

In one closed country, church leaders were meeting for encouragement. Many of their house churches were experiencing difficulties in gathering together. Almost all of them shared an urgent need for Bibles. They lamented, "How can our churches grow without Bibles?"

They prayed together, asking God for perseverance, and for much-needed Bibles.

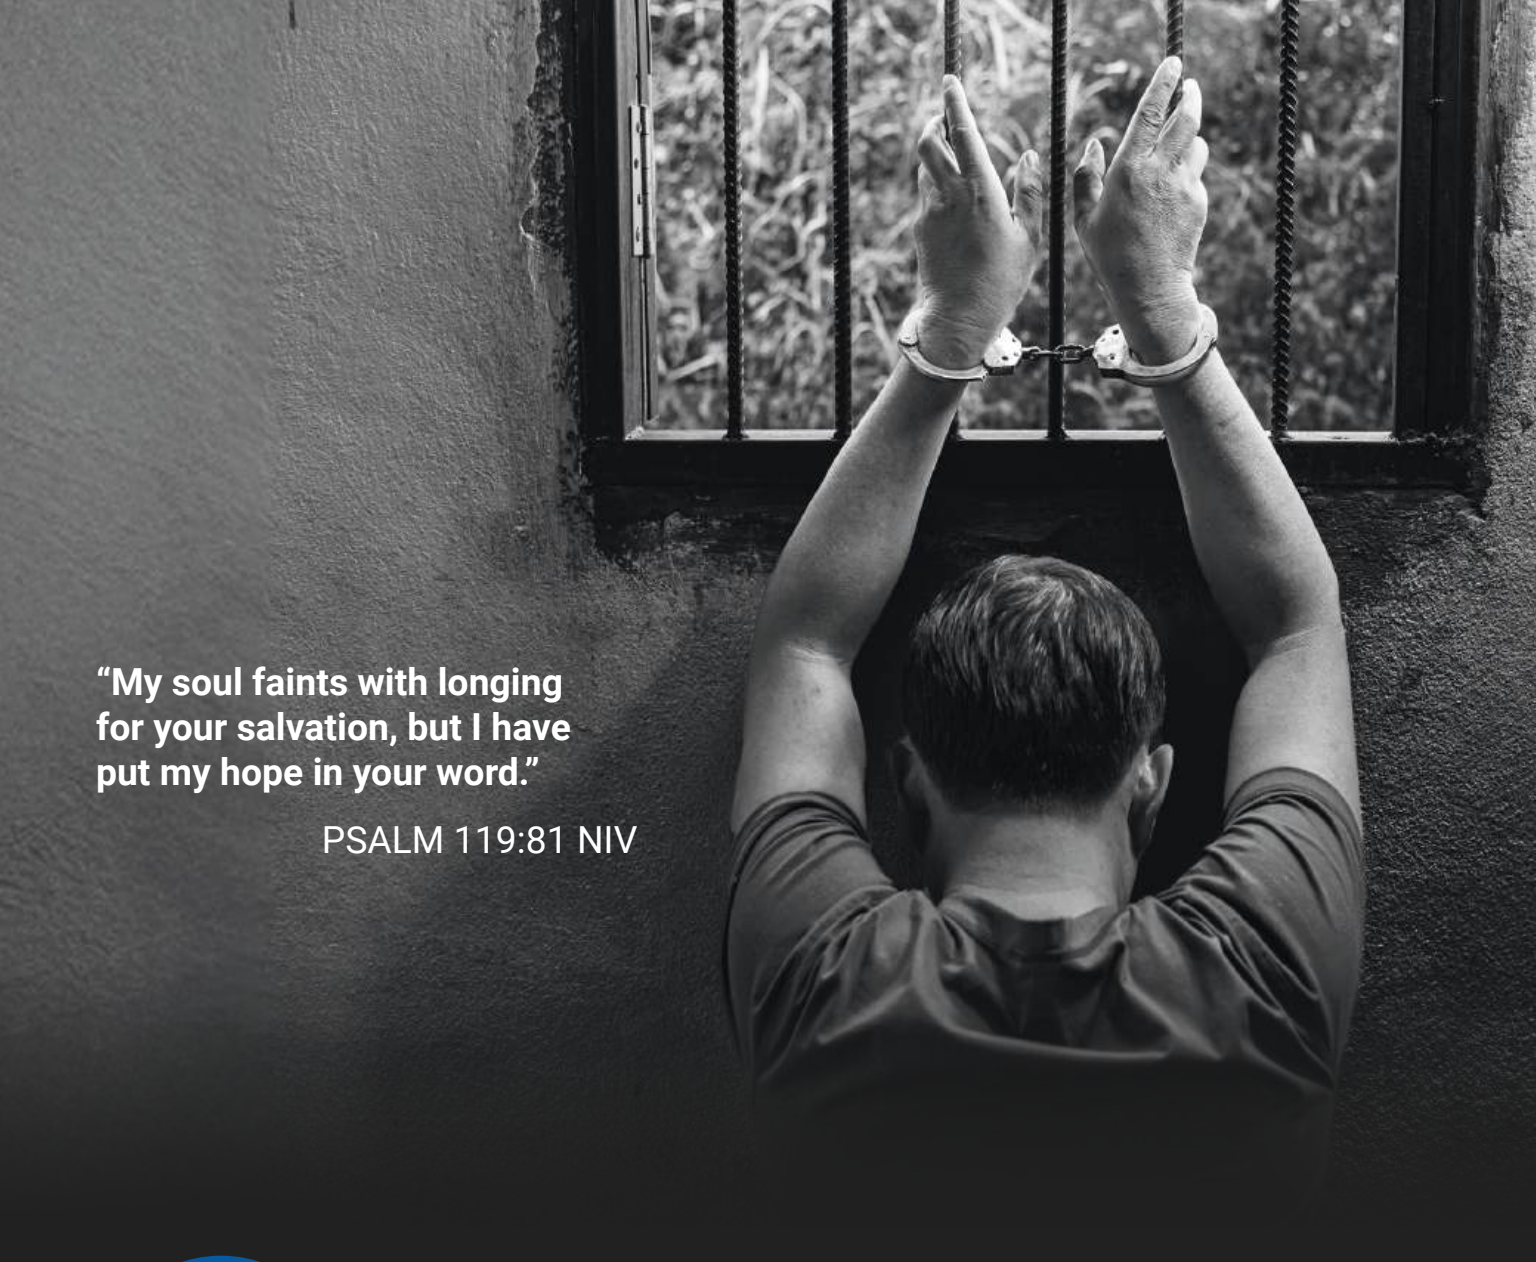
Then, the police burst in and arrested seven people. Four leaders were given 5-15 days of house arrest and three were locked up in jail for 7 days for unlawful assembly. This level of control makes it so difficult to carry out ministry! But that is not what these Christian leaders focus on. Their eyes are fixed on Jesus.

You can't change their circumstances, but you can provide the Bibles.

Your support can make a profound impact. For just $10, you can give the gift of a Bible to a persecuted Christian, living in a place hostile to Christianity, yearning to deepen their faith and boldly share the hope of Jesus Christ with others.

What makes it even more extraordinary is that, if you donate before December 31, 2025, your gift will be matched to provide two Bibles instead of one! Your generosity and commitment to sharing the Word of God can bring light to the darkest places and empower those who need it most.

Your gift provides the Bible that is the lifeline for a persecuted Christian.



“My soul faints with longing for your salvation, but I have put my hope in your word.”

PSALM 119:81 NIV
